++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Breezy with some sunny spells. Brightest in the east.

Today:
Bright and breezy, with sunny spells and perhaps the odd fleeting light shower, more likely in the west. Feeling rather cool, especially as the breeze picks up later. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tonight:
Breezy overnight, with the Peak District perhaps seeing occasional light rain. Clearer at times in eastern and southern areas, perhaps allowing a local frost. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Monday:
Mainly fine during the morning, but on balance a cloudier day than Sunday, with more general rain spreading eastwards and increasing winds later in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
This period becoming much more unsettled. Mild but rather wet and windy Tuesday. Some rain and hill snow developing Wednesday, ahead of a colder and windy Thursday with some snow.
